Finance, Personnel and Public Safety Committee

Presented on January 7, 2020

December 2019

Agenda:

Francis and Ruth Oberreich Foundation Grant Ted's Piggly Wiggly Donation Green Lake Basic Needs Fund Grant

Appendix:

Francis and Ruth Oberreich Foundation Grant

This department was recently awarded a $1,000 grant from the Oberreich Foundation to purchase new LED STOP signs for all Markesan Crossing Guards and the Princeton Crossing Guard. This department along with our crossing guards are very grateful for these signs. They are amazing and really capture the attention of motorists.

Ted's Piggly Wiggly Donation

This department recently received $1,300 dollars from Ted's Piggly Wiggly as part of their Election give back campaign. On November 5th, Ted's Piggly Wiggly donated a portion of their sales to the Markesan Police Department for the purchase of equipment.

This department is extremely grateful for the support from our local business. We greatly appreciate the support.

Green Lake Basic Needs Fund Grant

This department recently was awarded a $5,000 grant from the Green Lake Basic Needs Fund to assist in paying for the Shop with a Hometown Hero program. Because of this generous grant we were able to expand this program to 15 kids this year. This $5,000 grant will help cover all expenses for the 2019 and 2020 Shop with a Hometown Hero Program.

This department is extremely grateful for the support towards our Shop with a Hometown Hero Program. We greatly appreciate the support.

According to Dan Sondalle, for any business that has dissolved, the City of Markesan is unable to collect delinquent personal property tax from them.

I have enclosed the most recent statements of dissolved businesses that still owe personal property tax to the City.

I would like to refer this to the auditor to write-off this debt.
